

Citi Markets Sales & Trading Frankfurt - Final Interview Cheat Sheet

Your Story

- Frankfurt School student
- Programming and accounting excellence
- M&A; internship
- Python tutor
- IMC Prosperity top 302/18,000+
- Citi Open Day
- Citi Markets Simulation
- Barclays Coffee Chat founder

Why Citi

- Global markets franchise
- Strong FX and Rates business
- Cross-border client network
- Institutional client exposure
- Strong learning culture

ECB June 11 Theme

- Markets expect 25bp hike
- Inflation increased to 3.2%
- Core inflation increased to 2.5%
- Iran conflict pushed energy prices higher
- Potential second hike in September
- Risk of stagflation

ECB Impact

- Rates up -> Bond prices down
- Rates up -> Yields up
- Rates up -> EUR stronger
- Rates up -> Equity valuations pressured

Oil and Iran

- Higher oil prices

- Inflation pressure
- Central bank implications
- Important macro risk

Canada Trade Surplus

- 55% increase to 15-month high
- Driven by higher crude oil prices
- Shows commodity impact on macro data
- Good example linking geopolitics and trade

Fixed Income

- Bond price/yield inverse relationship
- Duration
- Credit spreads
- Yield curve

Equities

- Earnings
- Interest rates
- Economic growth
- Valuations
- Sentiment

FX

- Interest rates
- Growth
- Inflation
- Central banks

Options

- Call = right to buy
- Put = right to sell
- Hedging
- Speculation

Trade Ideas

- Short Bunds if ECB hikes
- Long semiconductors on AI theme

- Long energy on oil strength

Technical Questions

- What happens if ECB hikes?
- What is duration?
- What drives FX?
- What is a call?
- What is a put?
- Why do yields and prices move inversely?

Interview Checklist

- Know your story
- Know why Citi
- Know why Markets
- Know 3 market themes
- Know 3 trade ideas
- Be concise and confident